SOUL the School of Unity & Liberation is a school to build a movement. We have developed 5 curriculum, training, and organizational development manuals towards these ends.

YOUTH ORGANIZING FOR COMMUNITY POWER

This is SOUL's core organizing skills training manual. Trainings were developed by experienced organizers and training centers nationally. The manual seeks to develop young organizers' skills to build a membership base, develop strategy & campaigns, and grow strong organizations. If you've been looking for tools to develop new organizers—staff and members—check this one out! It contains over 450 pages of curriculum, including visuals, worksheets, and a glossary for use in trainings and tools organizers can integrate into their work. This model of supervision has been refined over the past decade and we are proud to make it available as a tool to serve new and older organizations and their leadership! We have noted the crucial components of SOUL's staff development model and hope that these tools might prove useful to movement organizations broadly. This document includes our take organizationally on topics such as:
